Call for Proposals

We are happy to invite you to the 4th Middle European Student Indology Conference (MESIC) which is to be held from May 17th till May 19th 2012 at the Faculty of Philosophy in Zagreb, Croatia. This year, as in the previous, the conference will be organized by students of Indology from the University of Zagreb with the aid of their colleagues from the Adam Mickiewicz University in Poznań, Poland and University of Wrocław in Wrocław, Poland. The official language of MESIC is English. The conference is primarily intended for students of Indology of all degrees but students of other fields of study are also invited to participate with their insight into indological topics.

The participants will be able to choose the topic of their own liking, under the condition that it deals with some aspect of modern or ancient India, and present it in a student paper followed by a discussion.

The total number of presented papers will be limited to 20. The expected total time for presentation of a paper will be 30 minutes (20 minutes for the paper and 10 minutes for discussion).

All sent abstracts will be taken into consideration and chosen for presentation by the organizing committee. The deadline for sending paper abstracts (maximum 200 words in English) is March 15th.

The abstracts will be evaluated until April 1st and all applicants will get an acceptance or refusal answer by e-mail.

The final timetable of the conference will be prepared after receiving all the confirmations of attendance and it will be sent to participants by e-mail. The students will also receive a written certificate confirming their participation at the end of the conference.
